Shannon Staffing renews educational partnership with MVNU

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio (Sept. 28, 2020) — Following four years of successful partnership, Shannon Staffing of Mount Vernon, Ohio, has signed a renewed educational agreement with Mount Vernon Nazarene University. Included in this collaboration is a tuition discount for all Shannon Staffing associates as well as immediate family members.

“Not only will Shannon Staffing employees benefit from continuing their education at MVNU, but Shannon Staffing will gain a competitive advantage in the marketplace as well,” said MVNU’s Director of Outreach and Strategic Partnerships Ryan Stagg. “Companies that invest in their employees by promoting education are seeing a measurable positive impact on their bottom line.”

Associates of Shannon Staffing are able to participate in MVNU’s programs while continuing to work full time. The School of Graduate and Professional Studies provides convenient and affordable programs at the associate, bachelor and master’s degree levels. Fields of study include business, nursing, education and social work.

“We’re very excited to partner with MVNU to offer our employees and their families an outstanding and cost-effective way to improve their lives and enhance their livelihoods,” said Shannon Staffing President Nelson Law. “By partnering with MVNU’s School of Graduate and Professional Studies, members of our Shannon Staffing extended family can increase their knowledge and skills base and discover new methods of lifelong learning.”
